

2012 PROGRAMS- FEES

COURSE TYPE	TOTAL FEE EURO
SOMMELIER COURSE
A Version	3.000,00
B Version	4.500,00
C Version	4.700,00

Fees charged for the Courses include:

- Accommodation at the Institute´s Guesthouse in mini-apartments (formed by two rooms with one, two or three beds and a bathroom) with breakfast or at external receptive structure nearby the School.
- Meals at the School from Monday to Saturday (the School is closed on Sundays and on national holidays).
- Theoretical-practical lessons, as per scheduled program.
- N. 5 AIS textbooks and n. 3 tasting notebooks (one for each level)
- Food products for lessons and tastings.
- Use of equipment and tools during lessons in the different classrooms.
- Enrollment to the AIS association
- AIS Tastevin
- AIS Badge
- Subscription to the first year of the AIS magazine
- "Guide to the 2000 wines of Italy" of the year in which will be formalize the enrolment to the course
- Free entrance for one day at Vinitaly
- Small suitcase with 4 glasses
- Group transfers from Torino-Caselle or Milano Malpensa airports upon arrival in Italy (only when in groups, for the single students the fee for the transfer will be at his own charge).
- Professional Sommelier diploma with AIS qualification (recognized in Italy and with International recognition through the WSA - World Wide Sommelier Association) after the final exam.

Anything not mentioned above is not included.

The above mentioned fees may undergo slight variations from Country to Country, according to the additional services rendered by ICIF local offices and the agreements or laws governing these matters in the different Countries.

For any further information on the cost of Courses you can contact the ICIF office in your own Country or directly ICIF's headquarters in Costigliole d'Asti.